

rams

is pleased to present...

Psychoanalytic Scholar Seminar Series

Seminar #1:

“States of Mind and Case Formulation”

Monday, January 14, 2008 at 11:00 – 12:00 pm

Mardi J. Horowitz, MD, Professor of Psychiatry, UCSF;

Director of Center on Stress and Personality, Langley Porter Psychiatric Institute; Distinguished Author

Seminar #2:

“Psychodynamic Group Therapy for Clients with Chronic & Severe Mental Illness”

Thursday, February 7, 2008 at 9:00 – 12:00 pm

Walter N. Stone, MD, Professor Emeritus, University of Cincinnati;

Clinical Professor, UCSF; Past President, American Group Psychotherapy Association, 2007 Educator of the Year, American Group Psychotherapy Association; Distinguished Author

Seminar #3:

“Different Characterological States and Countertransference in the Clinical Encounter”

Seminar and Adult Case Presentation & Discussion

Thursday, March 20, 2008 at 1:00 – 3:30 pm

Peter Goldberg, PhD, Member & Faculty, SF Center for Psychoanalysis;

Faculty at Psychoanalytic Institute of Northern California,
Wright Institute, and University of California at Berkeley; Private practice, Berkeley

Seminar #4:

“Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Community-Based Clinical Work”

Seminar and Child Case Presentation & Discussion

Friday, April 4, 2008 at 9:15 – 10:45 am (Seminar) and 1:30 – 3:30 pm (Case Presentation)

Neil Altman, PhD, Associate Clinical Professor in Post-Doctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis at New York University; Distinguished Author

 All seminars are held at the RAMS Outpatient Clinic Conference Room ***

 Upcoming Seminars with Glen O. Gabbard, MD (September 2008) and Kimberlyn Leary, PhD (November 2008)