To RAMS Partners, Collaborators, and members of our Community

RAMS is pleased to announce the appointment of Jonathan Zimman, as Chief Financial Officer of Richmond Area Multi-Services (RAMS).

Jonathan Zimman has over 30 years of experience as a finance professional with Fortune 500 companies, venture-backed start-ups, and not-for profit organizations.

Prior to RAMS, Mr. Zimman has served as Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of The Arc San Francisco, one of the Bay Area's largest providers of services to adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, since 2014. Previously, he served as Chief Financial Officer of San Francisco AIDS Foundation, a leading AIDS service organization.

Before working in the non-profit sector, Mr. Zimman served as CFO of several venture-backed technology companies, including: Posit Science, a leading developer of scientifically-validated brain fitness programs; SiteRock, an ecommerce managed-services provider that is now part of NaviSite; and Total Entertainment Network, a pioneering online game community site subsequently renamed Pogo and now a part of Electronic Arts. Earlier in his career, he held various financial management positions at Western Union, Warner Cable, and American Broadcasting Companies.

Mr. Zimman also has completed over 20 years of service as a director or trustee of several non-profit organizations including the National AIDS Memorial, Multimedia Development Group, New Israel Fund/New Generations, Daily Pennsylvanian, and Big Apple Performing Arts.

Mr. Zimman earned his MBA degree from Harvard University and his BA degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He and his husband, Glenn Roberts, are inveterate travelers and enthusiastic cyclists and split their time between San Francisco and Sonoma County.

The Executive Leadership Team at RAMS also wishes to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to Acting Chief Financial Officer Lenora Williams, who has steadfastly guided the financial operations at RAMS through this transition and recruitment period. We appreciate her continued support in ensuring a successful transition for RAMS.
